SHPE & ELDLP Lunch and Learn With J.D. McFarlan

On Friday, March 20th the chapter, in conjunction with the Engineering Leadership Development Program (ELDP), continued its series of LM Executive Spotlight Talks with J.D. McFarlan, Vice President of F-35 Test and Verification.

Mr. McFarlan presented on several topics to include sharing his personal and professional background, leadership principles, individual beliefs, and career challenges. He also shared a couple exceptional videos with the audience, one in particular highlighting his team's recent experience and success with F-35C Developmental Testing I (DT-1) aboard the USS Nimitz and another summarizing the hair raising turn of events that occurred on AA-1 flight 19. The chapter would like to thank Mr. McFarlan for taking the time to speak with us and saving time to answer questions from the audience.

If you have any suggestions on future professional development events for the chapter, or to recommend a future lunch n learn speaker, please contact Aaron Prokopchuk.
